Helpful KCSC Definitions

The trip articles on the following pages use a lot of terms veteran club members should understand from years of experience; however, this year we have some new terms. As a public service, we offer these definitions:

Sign Up Definitions:

Trip Application – A paper Trip Application including the Risk Waiver must be completed and SIGNED by each individual trip participant (even if you signed up on the website). Also a parent/legal guardian must sign for a minor. Minors 16 and over must also sign their trip application.

Lodging Definitions:

Family Trip: Activities geared to families. Children must be five years or older. While trips are recommended for families, singles are also welcome.

Minimum Occupancy (M): No one sleeps on the couch. In condos, example: Two people per bedroom. Hotel rooms are two per room.

Maximum Occupancy Hotel (XH): Four people in a hotel room, the maximum number for which the unit is designed.

Maximum Occupancy Condo (XC): 2 people per room with 2 people on pull-out sofa bed in living room, the maximum number of which the unit is designed.

Private Bed Hotel (BH): Available on maximum occupancy hotel trips only. Pay an additional fee to have a bed to yourself.

Bedroom for maximum occupancy condo trips (XCB): Standard trip price is for staying in a bedroom (2 people per room).

Couch for maximum occupancy condo trips (XCC): Reduced trip price is for sleeping on pull-out sofa bed in living room (2 people per bed).

Food (F): Some meals provided on the trip, in addition to meals on bus and captain's party (e.g., FSA banquet).
