- The hotel is in the village, with daily quick shuttle to ski mountain
- Sun Valley is home to Bald Mountain and a Resort Village. If you're looking for the world's best ski mountain, you just may have found it in Baldy. What makes up a perfect ski day? First a mountain with perfect pitch, consistent vertical from its 9,150 ft. peak down to the 5,750 ft. base. No flats, no plateaus - all downhill on a variety of slopes rated to your liking and ability. Sun Valley was aptly named because its brilliant sun shines 80 percent of the ski season in an azure blue sky. After all, it was "winter sports under a summer sun" that put Sun Valley on the map almost 85 years ago.
